

FCS 335 Ch 8-11

Across

4. Toilet _____ can take up to a year to complete and is usually earlier in girls.
6. The _____ theory attempts to study language development within the context of the parent-infant interaction.
7. According to Piaget, "Knowledge is the product of direct behavior."
13. _____ emotions, such as embarrassment, shame, or pride, begin to emerge around the child's second birthday.
15. When children can only focus on one limited yet striking aspect of an object, it is called _____.
19. Infants can understand more words than they _____.
20. The beginning of active experimentation is seen in _____ circular reactions.
21. When allowed to walk on different surfaces, toddlers are most likely to prefer _____ surfaces that are not moving, hard and level.
22. The emotion most frequently elicited in infants when their goals have been disrupted.
23. A child looking at a clicker and says, "Click click click!" can be an example of _____ speech.
25. _____ attached infants are more likely to be better problem solvers in preschool and kindergarten.
27. Aware they have an inner experience different from others is the _____ self.

28. When children engage in _____ pretend play, they are reliving past events in order to assimilate it more effectively.

30. An 11-month-old infant puts a lid on a pot and a cup on a saucer, which are examples of _____.

31. Piaget sees the infant's role in cognitive growth as being an active _____ in their learning.

Down

1. 2 or more-word utterances omitting connecting words, endings, and prepositions is known as _____ speech.
2. Theorist best known for refining and expanding Bowlby's attachment theory.
3. "I want it," is an example of _____ speech.
5. Development of spoon use in infancy, can take up to 6-8 _____.
8. _____ parents are likely to have clear rules, yet express support and warmth toward their children.
9. An increase in verbal language is important in forming _____ memories.
10. A one-word utterance that depend on the particular context in which they are used.
11. In general, toys are age appropriate if they match the child's _____ level and provide some challenge to the child.
12. 1. When a child reaches one year of age, physical growth begins to rapidly _____.

14. When Bobby sees himself in the mirror and exclaims, "Bobby!" this exemplifies the _____ self.

16. "I a boy!" is an example of gender _____.

17. At the dinner table, 12-month-old Shauntel observes her sister feed the dog a piece of food from the table. The next day, Shauntel takes a piece of her food and throws it to the dog. This is an example of _____ imitation.

18. When children can appreciate the psychological states of other people, researchers referred to as a theory of the _____.

24. The final stage of sensorimotor development leads to the development of _____ thought, which is at the heart of all forms of human thought.

26. Any action that will result in a positive outcome for the child is considered parental _____ behavior.

29. The most important factor related to the effects of child care on children is _____.