

Classic American Authors

Across

2. Hated white washing fences.

5. The Roaring 20s was the prime time for extravagant stalkers.

6. Wrote about animals in the Yukon.

8. Major advocate for objectivism.

11. Instead of feeling 22, he caught 22.

12. Two roads diverged in a yellow wood.

15. Had a bad case of cetaphobia.

18. Poetry about death, nature and the dash.

19. Short story writer, poet and opium addict.

20. Killed mockingbirds and, most recently, Atticus' character.

21. Abolition, Naturalism & Walden.

22. The musical "Cats" was based on his collection of cat poetry.

23. Female southern author who found truth in life's oddities.

Down

1. Southern Nobel prize winner and Absalom, Absalom!

3. Master of the horror story genre.

4. Based her little women on herself and her sisters.

7. Who knew currants could get angry?

9. Firemen will someday create fires using books as kindling.

10. Narcissist who loved the smell of his armpits.

13. NOT born in TN.

14. Elderly Cuban fishermen fight the sea and giant marlins.

16. Never wear "A" on your clothing. Especially not in red.

17. Compared the civil rights struggle to a bird singing in a cage.