

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Immune System

Across

- 3. while many medical advances have been made to safeguard against infection by.
- 4. less technical term for leukocyte.
- 5. the immunity that results from the production of antibodies by the immune system.
- 6. a localized physical condition in which part of the body becomes reddened, swollen, hot, and often painful.

7. a type of cell within the body capable of engulfing.

10. a lymphocyte not processed by the thymus gland.

11. a blood protein produced in response to and counteracting.

12. To function properly, this must detect a wide variety of agents, known as pathogens.

Down

1. These mechanisms include physical barriers such as skin, chemicals in the blood is.

2. pathogenic microorganisms, such as bacteria, viruses are caused by.

8. These antigens are different from those on the surface of bacteria.

9. a lymphocyte of a type produced or processed by the thymus.