

Chapter 14 World History 2 Test

Across

1. during the late middle ages, Spain did all of the following except
3. On the 5th of November 1605 I attempted to kill the king and his family by putting 10 tons of gunpowder under parliament and blowing it up. Today they celebrate my attempt on the King by blowing of fireworks
4. a ruler maintains absolute authority over foreign policy, taxation, and the lives of their subjects.
5. the bill of rights did all of the following except
7. Ruled by one
8. I was the best example of an absolute ruler. I was all the rage, every prince in Europe wanted to be like me.
11. What were the conditions that William and Mary had to accept in order to receive the Throne of England?
13. a ruler shares authority with parliament
14. What did I nickname myself because I believed that I was the source of light for all of my people?
18. Ivan IV (The terrible) was the first Russian ruler to take this title. What is the Russian word for Caesar?

20. Under the king's watchful eye, great lords no longer plotted- they remained with the court, ready to please and serve the king. Where did the king keep an eye on his nobility?
  21. what was so glorious about the Glorious Revolution
  22. This queen of England died in 1603 bringing an end to the Tudor Dynasty
  23. What was the magic called that had been part of traditional European village culture called?
  26. What are the members of the Russian nobility called?
  27. Ruled by none
  28. The time period in which a ruler held total power was known as Divine right of the king. Absolutism was tied to the medieval idea of _____ where rulers received their power from God and were responsible only to God.
  29. After I purged the parliament all that was left was this. We were also the group that executed Charles I.
- Down
2. Why did parliament want William and Mary (James II daughter) to invade England?
  6. had the ability to make laws, levy taxes, administer justice, control state officials&determine foreign policy

9. We supported the Parliament during the English Civil Wars and had funny haircuts.
10. In order to avoid being captured by the Parliamentary forces the heir to the throne, Charles II, hid in one of these.
12. We supported the king during the English Civil Wars.
15. To maintain his army and his power Fredrick William set up the General War Commissariat to levy taxes for the army and to oversee its growth. Many of these agencies members came from the aristocracy. What are the members of the Prussian landed aristocracy called?
16. where thousands of Puritans go to practice their own religion during this time
17. the military genius who led Parliament to victory with the "New Model Army"
19. What type of governmental system is it when the ruler holds total power?
24. this religion group fled Britain for the new world, a pilgrimage of sorts, to find religious freedom.
25. I was the Scottish cousin of the Queen pictured above and believed in "Divine rights of Kings." I tried to make the church more Protestant which angered many.