Date:

Computerized Accounting

¹⁷G R O S S

Across

- 6. Book of original entry
- 9. The taking of cash out of a business
- 10. An error in placing the decimal point in a number
- 11. Cash, properties, and other things of value owned by business
- 12. Any period of time covering a complete accounting cycle
- 14. The left side of a T Account

- 15. The right side of a T Account
- 16. The costs that relate to earning revenues
- 17. The total amount of an employee's pay before deductions

Down

- 1. Debts or amounts owed to creditors
- 2. Temporary accounts closed at end of fiscal period
- 3. The process of recording a business transaction in a journal

- 4. An error that involves switching digits around in a number
- 5. The owner's investment or equity in an enterprise
- 7. The amounts a business earns.
- 8. One who works for compensation under the direction and control of an employer
- 13. A cash fund used to make small, immediate purchases