

Name: _____

Date: _____

psych nursing week 1

Across

3. a psychiatric diagnosis describing a variety of mood disorders. This is defined by mood swings, from excessive energetic highs to depressive and extreme lows
8. a term to describe the deterioration of mental functionality, such as memory, language and judgement
11. When the first stages of a mental health condition are spotted, beginning treatment as early as possible to aid recovery

12. to try and deal with the anxiety associated with the obsession, repetitive actions or 'compulsions' are performed
13. a normal emotion, which can lead to a very serious illness
14. a symptom that you are probably feeling about this clinical

Down

1. An assignment you will need to complete
2. an event that happens suddenly
4. depression, bipolar disorder, and anxiety are examples of this group of disorders

5. qualified medical doctors who specialise in mental health conditions
6. Medications that is usually prescribed to treat psychosis
7. characterized by period of at least one week where an elevated, or unusually irritable mood, as well as notably persistent goal-directed activity is present
9. a symptom that often interferes in a person's life
10. what needs to be respected for all patients

Word Bank

Early intervention
psychiatrist
confidentiality stress Interpersonal process recording

Bipolar Antipsychotic anxiety
OCD
Dementia

Manic
crisis Depression
affective disorders