

Name: _____

Date: _____

Industrialization and Nationalism

Across

2.

5. the process in which coke derived from coal is used to burn away impurities in crude iron to produce high-quality iron

13. an intellectual movement that emerged at the end of the 18th century in reaction to the ideas of the Enlightenment; it stressed feelings, emotion, and imagination as sources of knowing

14. a mid 19th century movement that rejected romanticism and sought to portray lower-and middle-class life as it actually was

15. the principle that some organisms or more adaptable to the environment than others

16. The act of setting free emancipation

18. an empire in which people of many nationalities live

20. A system of production where goods are manufactured by machines under one roof, with unskilled labor, using standardized parts

Down

1. A person of European descent born in Latin America and living there permanently

3. indifference to or rejection of religion or religious consideration

4. an economic system based on industrial production or manufacturing

6. a person who finds new business opportunities and new ways to make profits

7. The reliance on military strength

8. A movement to end slavery

9. money available for investment

10. German For "Caesar"; the title of the emperors of the second German empire

11. a popular vote

12. A system in which society, usually in the form of the government, owns and controls the means of production

17. a crop that is grown for sale rather than for personal use

19. A person of mixed and Native American descent