Name: _____ Date: _____

Genre: Fantasy

Across

6. Present-day protagonist goes back in time to a different era. Ex. The Seer of Shadows

10. Traditional folktales with a contemporary twist. Ex. The Adventures of the Dish and the Spoon.

11. Events, setting, or characters are outside of the realm of possibility.

12. Contains supernatural elements such as vampires, ghosts, and witchcraft. Ex. Harry Potter

Down

1. Beloved toys and objects are brought to life. Ex. The Adventures of Pinocchio

2. Traditional tale with a known author who writes in this style. Ex. Ella Enchanted

3. Imaginative literature providing a story based on real science facts. Ex. The Giver.

4. Contains adventure and a prominent search motif. Ex. The Hobbit

5. Blends fantasy and realism. Ex. Skellig

7. Animals have the ability to behave like humans, experience emotions, talk , and see reason. Ex. The Tale of Peter Rabbit

8. Worlds with miniature people who have their own culture. Ex. The Indian in the Cupboard.

9. Contain ridiculous or exaggerated characters or strange situations. Ex. Alice's Adventures in Wonderland