

Polynomial Vocabulary

Across

- 4. What is the # on the degree term?
- 10. An equation that has 2 terms
- 11. This part of the equation is separated by +/-
- 12. This is written in descending order by exponents

13. Length*Width= ?

Down

- 1. An equation that has a 4th+ degree
- 2. In a term what is the proper name for the exponent?
- 3. A type of function that is to the 1st degree

- 5. What do you call the thing that is to the ^?
- 6. A equation that has 3 terms
- 7. A type of equation that has one term
- 8. An equation that is to the 3rd degree
- 9. An equation that has 4+ terms