

figurative language

Across

1. makes a situation seem less important or serious than it is.
2. used in the opposite of the speakers thoughts
5. an expression
6. appears to contradict itself
10. A figure of speech in which one word or phrase is substituted for another with which it's closely associated
12. similar sense or sound of different words
13. bold words that stand out
16. metaphor giving distinct human qualities
17. an affirmative is expressed by negating its opposite
18. not literal
19. incongruous or contradictory terms appear side by side.
20. represents a sound

Down

3. rhetorical strategy of describing something indirectly by referring to things around it.
4. repeated consonant sound
7. compares two or more things using like or as
8. which a part is used to represent the whole
9. an inoffensive term for one considered offensively explicit
11. Identity or similarity in sound between internal vowels
14. compares two unlike things
15. phrase at the beginning of successive clauses or verses