

Name: _____

Date: _____

Back to School!

Across

3. A position taken at address where the feet, shoulders, knees and hips are all parallel to the target-line, either open or closed

4. The numerical summation of the strokes taken to finish a hole, or the strokes taken to play the entire round of golf

5. A type of golf club where the clubhead is rather bulbous in shape with a flat face

10. The turf or grass that is outside and adjacent to the fairway, usually taller and coarser than the fairway

11. The speed or tempo of the golf swing

12. A person who is hired to carry a player's bag and clubs from hole to hole on the golf course

14. An off-course facility which is designed to allow golfers to practice their swing

16. The turf or grass that is outside and adjacent to the fairway, usually taller and coarser than the fairway

18. One under par on a hole

20. This occurs when your ball lies on the green so close to the hole that your playing partner does not require you to actually hit the ball in

21. A poor golf shot that curves from left to right (for a right-hander) to a much greater degree than a fade

23. A shot which sends the ball veering slightly to the right (for right-handed golfers)

Down

1. A rather large depression or hollow in the ground along a fairway or around the green, which is sodden or filled with sand

2. A type of club with a steep loft used for hitting a high soft-landing shot

6. A club which uses a metallic blade for the clubhead

7. A shot which bends to the left (for right handed golfers)

8. The amount of curve a putt ball will traverse due to the slope of the green, grain and dryness of the grass, speed of the putt, and extreme wind

9. A word that is shouted loudly as a warning signal when a ball is hit and heading in the direction of another player

13. The initial shot on each hole which is taken from the tee

15. Two under par

17. The expected path of the ball to the cup while putting

19. a round or cupped indentation on the cover of the ball

22. A golf club with a flat-faced, lofted, solid metal clubhead, generally numbered from one (1) to nine (9)