

Name: _____

Shop Safety

Across

5. (BLANK) burns result from skin or eye contact with a strong acid, corrosive, caustic, or alkaloid

6. Safety (BLANK) must be worn at all times when operating any type of power tool. No exceptions.

8. According to (BLANK), safety data sheets must be readily accessible to you in your work area during each work shift

12. (BLANK) offer protection from sharp objects, wood and metal splinters, acids, electrical burns, chemicals, and many other sources of injury.

13. To burn, a (BLANK) needs three elements- fuel, oxygen, and heat?

14. Using proper (BLANK) for the job and using common sense are the best practice for not getting hurt at work

15. Wearing (BLANK) is the best way to protect your hearing in extreme noise conditions, such as bucking rivets?

Down

1. A (BLANK) point is produced when 2 objects come together and there is a possibility that a person could be caught or injured when coming in contact with that area.

2. When lifting a load, make sure to keep it close to your body, and then let your (BLANK)- not your back - do the lifting?

3. When using a (BLANK) safety cage you must remain out of the trajectory path?

4. (BLANK) pathogens are microorganisms present in blood that could cause diseases?

7. In the event of a tornado, the shelter area I will go to is?

9. Before performing any service on a trailer, proper (BLANK)/Tagout procedures must be followed.

10. When ascending or descending ladders or scaffolds, mechanics must always maintain (BLANK) points of contact.

11. Long term exposure to loud noises can lead to permanent tinnitus and/or (BLANK) loss.