

Name: _____

Date: _____

Of Mice and Men

Across

3. Pretty, but flirtatious woman who is like "poison" for the ranch workers.

5. One of the main characters who is described as, "small and quick....with restless eyes."

9. The leader among the ranch hands. The others look up to his for decisions. And he appears to be tough and wise.

10. One of the main characters who is described as, "a huge man, shapeless of face."

11. Lennie loves this on his beans

13. Curley's Wife said Lennie could pet her ____

14. George and Lennie plan to own one of these.

15. This is where Lennie and Georges meet by the river

18. Mistreated stable-buck who likes to read.

19. Powerful, big stomached guy who owns a Luger pistol.

20. Old swamper with no right hand.

Down

1. Boss's son who has the short man complex and wears high-heeled boots and a glove filled with Vaseline.

2. Handyman; someone who performs odd jobs—such as cleaning

4. A northern California mining town; where the two main character came from.

6. A long, rectangular room where the ranch workers live, but the stable-buck is not allowed.

7. a mule driver

8. Lennie's unexpected last name.

12. In the bunkhouse, the men like to play ____.

16. Owner of the ranch. Arrogant and confident

17. Decade that the novella takes place in.