

roman republic

Across

- 3. groups of 6,000 roman soldiers
- 5. a person exercising absolute power, especially a ruler who has absolute power
- 9. great hero from troy who formed an alliance with the latins in Italy
- 10. an official appointed by the government of one country to look after commercial interest and the welfare of its citizens in another country
- 12. an italic language spoken in ancient rome established as the official language of the roman empire

13. market place or public square of ancient roman city

14. belonging to ancient roman plebs

15. founder of rome in 753 b.c. and king he and his brother were abandoned as babies

Down

1. roman officials who were judged, financials, and organizers of games and festivals

2. roman general and statesman dictator

4. citizens of rome who were noble and powerful and could be elected to office

6. republic a state in which the supreme power rests in the body of citizens entitled to vote and exercised by representatives chosen directly or indirectly by them

7. killed by twin brother for mocking fortifications of rome

8. the power or right vested in one branch of government to cancel or postpone decisions

11. former roman soldiers who led thousands of slaves in a fight for freedom