

Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

Across

2. The fundamental Right to life and those things required for human decency.

7. Loving Self-Gift; Ultimate example is Jesus' death on the Cross

9. Created in the image and likeness of God, ALL human life is sacred.

11. Seeking together the common good; human beings are naturally social beings.

12. The type of justice that individuals owe/give to the community

13. The highest sign of man's creation in the divine image.

14. Working for justice and peace; our response to the gospel call to be peacemakers; no matter our differences spread across the world, we are one human family

15. To put the needs of those most marginalized and left behind in our world, before our own.

Down

1. The right to productive work, decent and fair wages, and private property ownership; the economy must serve the people

3. Organizing principle that all matters must be handled at localist level possible that individual autonomy is maintained.

4. To be good stewards of the earth.

5. That which perpetuates disparity in our communities; the result of The Fall

6. Aquinas' concept that requires all to participate simultaneously without it diminishing

8. Going upstream to figure out why so many babies are coming down the river; giving what is deserved

10. That which sets us apart from all other creation and where our rationality resides
