

Chapter 1 Vocabulary Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. A map that represents the geology of an area is called a _____.
6. A three dimensional volume of a certain kind of rock of a given range is called a _____.
8. A _____ is where two rock formations occur next to each other.
9. A map that refers to the shape of a surface, including the position of its features and elevation
10. _____ is the vertical view of a drawing.

Down

1. The distance (in degrees) that measures east or west of the prime meridian.
2. A _____ shows all the symbols used in a map and what the symbols mean.
3. The distance (in degrees) that measures north or south of the equator.
5. _____ are lines on maps that put together the points of equal elevation.
7. Maps that are drawn in _____ are drawn as if you're looking down on the area from above Earth's surface.