

Name: _____

Date: _____

It's Hurricane Season!

Across

3. "She" struck New Orleans in 2005.

5. A place to go for safety.

9. What a hurricane is called in the Indian Ocean.

11. Another name for a cyclone.

14. Hurricanes lose strength as they move over this.

15. The deadliest hurricane in US history hit this Texas city in 1900.

17. Areas most at danger from hurricanes.

18. A region of low atmospheric pressure.

Down

1. This provides energy for a hurricane.

2. Leave the area.

4. An intense tropical storm with powerful winds and heavy rain.

6. What causes the most damage in a hurricane.

7. Technology used to track a hurricane.

8. Hemisphere in which wind flows clockwise.

10. As well as wind and rain, hurricanes also produce these.

12. These are usually strongest around the eye.

13. The calm area of a hurricane.

16. What a hurricane is called in Japan.