

Personality

Across

3. Excessive self-love and self-absorption
 6. Giving priority to one's own goals over group goals and defining one's identity in terms of personal attributes rather than group identifications
 11. Overestimating others' noticing and evaluating our appearance, performance, and blunders
 12. The process by which children incorporate their parents' values into their developing superegos
 14. Basic defense mechanism that banishes from consciousness anxiety-arousing thoughts, feelings, and memories

Down

1. A lingering focus of pleasure-seeking energies at an earlier psychosexual stage, in which conflicts were unresolved
 2. Theory of personality that attributes thoughts and actions to unconscious motives and conflicts; the techniques used in treating psychological disorders by seeking to expose and interpret unconscious tensions
 4. A method of exploring the unconscious in which the person relaxes and says whatever comes to mind
 5. The part of personality that represents internalized ideals and provides standards for judgment (the conscious) and for future aspirations
 7. An individual's characteristic pattern of thinking, feeling, and acting

8. Reservoir of mostly unacceptable thoughts, wishes, feelings, and memories; information processing of which we are unaware
 9. All our thoughts and feelings about ourselves, in answer to the question "who am I?"
 10. Projective test in which people express their inner feelings and interests through the stories they make up about ambiguous scenes
 13. A characteristic pattern of behavior or a disposition to feel and act, as assessed by self-report inventories and peer reports
