

Week 4 Cross-Word

Across

2. act of forbearing; abstaining; leniency; patience

5. oppressively hot; torrid; sultry

7. relieve from an accusation; pronounce not guilty; discharge; exculpate; exonerate

8. forced out of use; displace; supplant; replace

12. interfere with; hinder; impede

13. having varied interrelated parts, and therefore hard to understand; complicated; intricate

14. take back; remove

16. make young or youthful again; give new vigor to; reinvigorate

18. extraordinary in amount or size; enormous; gigantic; huge; colossal

19. shameless boldness; insolence; gall; temerity; nerve;chutzpah

20. favorable to health; healthful; curative; beneficial

Down

1. examine very closely; inspect

3. give, transfer, or deliver, as if by signing over; hand over; commit

4. forgetful; unmindful; not aware; unwitting

6. causing great pain or anguish; agonizing; unbearably painful

9. having the characteristics of a clown; mildly insane; crazy; clownish; loony

10. whatever is left after a part is taken, desposed of, or gone; remainder

11. literally, full of nettles; irritating; causing annoyance or vexation

15. not upset or agitated; calm; cool; unflustered

17. hard to wield because of size or weight; unmanageable; bulky; cumbersome