

Name: _____

Date: _____

Celts and Romans

Across

1. One green, leafy vegetable the Celts ate was _____
2. This Celtic shield was found in the Thames river
4. Strabo, in source E, tells us that the inhabitants of Britain used _____ in war
5. The Romans called the British Celts _____
10. Celtic shield could be this shape
12. _____ is the name of Celtic priests
17. Where did the blue dye they used on their bodies come from? A _____
18. The first name of the Roman General who invaded Britain in 54BC
20. Celtic clothes were woven from _____

21. This name was given to the people living in France in the Iron Age.
 24. The Celts used this substance like hair mousse.?
 25. In the centre of a Celtic home was a _____ used for light and heat
 26. One of the metals the Romans knew could be found in Britain
 27. The inhabitants of Britain sometimes used _____ as money
 28. The Romans admired these creatures that assisted the Celts in finding and catching food
- Down
3. Celtic trousers were called _____
 6. Iron age clothes were sewn together with needles made of _____
 7. What is the name of the blue dye the Celts used to decorate their bodies with?

8. Captured people would be used as _____
9. The Celts houses were known as _____
11. The _____ torc was an example of a beautiful piece of gold jewellery made by iron age Celts in Britain
13. The period before the iron age was called the _____ age
14. The second name of the Roman General who invaded Britain in 54 BC
15. The torcs they wore might have been used to hold on a _____
16. The Celts worshipped many _____
19. The Romans said the British celts were _____
22. This metal is also found in Britain
23. The Celts often threw weapons into _____ and rivers as a sacrifice