Unit 8: Crossword Puzzle

Across

5. a situation in which something is prevented from continuing in its usual way

7. someone who is likely to cause trouble because they are not happy with the way things are organized- used in order to show disapproval

8. the way you earn money in order to live

9. a statement that is untrue

10. to avoid work by pretending to be ill

11. the use of violence to obtain political demands

12. depending on or necessary to each other

Down

1. a process by which two or more things affect eachother

2. to divide into two equal parts

3. a theory that views environment rather than heredity as the important factor in the development and especially the cultural and intellectual development of an individual group

4. a crack or break in something

6. one of the parts that form something