

Thinking/Problem Solving

Across

2. Sarah enjoys teaching yoga ,hiking Stone Mountain and attending grunge music festivals on the weekends .She has many tattoos , smokes marijuana , and refuses to take any medicine that isn't herbal. Most people find it odd that during the week she works as a Corporate lawyer.
3. Karen has to do some research on John Adams in her textbook, she immediately goes to her index in the back of her book to see what pages she needs.
6. Katie is trying to do her math homework.Katie pulls out her math notes and follows the step by step instructions her teacher gave her.
8. When Ben asked his grandmother to help him study the order of the planets, his grandmother included the former planet Pluto.Ben informed her that scientists have discovered that Pluto is in fact no longer considered a planet.Grandma refuses to acknowledge this and insists that Ben include Pluto in his studies.

9. Jamie performs at the ballet recital and feels she did a good job.After the performance she seeks her coach and team members for feedback ,they all tell her she did a great job.Confirmation

10. Jamie is struggling to work out the last problem on his Pre-Calculus test, as he's staring at the test he suddenly remembers exactly how to do the problem

Down

1. You might view a thumbtack as something that can only be used to hold paper to a corkboard.
4. When Charlie plays "Tic-Tac-Toe", he always places his "X" in the center square because he knows from past experience that this move increases his chance of victory.
5. Mary keeps trying to tell her friend that girls can play football too ,but her friend insist that football is a boy sport and refuses to change her mind
7. John recently found out that he was diagnosed with a brain disorder that is potentially fatal.His doctor encourages him to continue the fight, citing that the disease only has a 5% mortality rate