Name:	Date:

Chapter 11

									<sup>1</sup> M
					<sup>2</sup> S	Р	I	R	I	Т	U	Α	L	S				<sup>3</sup> A
									S									М
									S							_		Ε
		<sup>4</sup> S			<sup>5</sup> N	Α	Т	I	0	N	Α	L	I	S	М			R
		Е							U	,								I
<sup>6</sup> N		С					-		R							<sup>7</sup> C		С
Α		Т					<sup>8</sup> E		ı							0		Α
Т		I		<sup>9</sup> H	Е	N	R	Υ	С	L	Α	Υ				Т		N
Т		0					I		0							Т		S
U		Ν		<sup>10</sup> J	Α	М	Ε	S	М	0	N	R	0	Ε		0		Υ
R		Α					С		Р							N		S
N		L				_	Α		R				_	_		G		Т
Е		I			<sup>11</sup> M	0	N	R	0	Ε	D	0	С	Т	R	ı	N	Ε
R		S					Α		М							N		М
		М					L		ı
									S
<sup>12</sup> P	R	0	Т	E	С	Т	ı	٧	Е	Т	A	R	ı	F	F

<sup>13</sup> E L I W H I T N E
---------------------------------

Across

- 2. Religious folk songs
- 5. A feeling of pride, loyalty, and protectiveness toward one's country
- 9. Nationlist Representative from Kentucky
- 10. Fifth President of the United States, who proclaimed the Monroe Doctrine
- 11. U.S. policy opposing European interfernce in the Western Hemisphere

- 12. Tax on imported goods that protects a nation's businesses from foreign competition
- 13. Inventor of the cotton Gin

Down

- 1. Laws enacted in 1820 to maintain balence of power between slave and free states
- 3. Plan introduced in 1815 tomake Ammerica economically self sufficient
- 4. Loyalty to the intersts of one's own reigon or section of the country
- 6. Leader of an 1831 salve rebellion in Viriginia
- 7. machine that made cleaning seeds from cotton faster
- 8. Waterway that connected New York City with Buffalo, New York

Word Bank

Monroe Doctrine

Eli Whitney Erie Canal Cotton Gin Sectionalism Henry Clay Missouri Compromise Spirituals Nat Turner Protective Tariff American System Nationalism James Monroe