

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Industrial Revolution

Across

2. leading advocate of the laissez-faire economics. He published The Wealth of Nations
 3. the system of manufacturing large numbers of identical items
 6. Era when the power driven machinery was developed, which began in great Britain
 9. Movement that allowed for more efficient farming methods and therefore, further increased the food supply
 15. born in Scotland, "rags to riches". Became a famous entrepreneur who led the expansion of the American steel industry
 16. theory that the good of all, society or the government, instead of individuals, should own property and control industry
 19. the private ownership of industries as opposed to government control
 20. business partnerships and co-partnerships.

21. A craft occupation performed in the home

23. identical machine-made parts

24. system were governments don't interfere in private business

25. socialist who declared that if capitalism grew, people would sink. Wrote the Das Kapital. He thought there should be a direct connection between one's work and pay

Down

1. organizations representing worker's interest

4. level of material comfort

5. Irish born American inventor who developed a steam ship called the Clermont

7. And inventor who solves the problem of the spinning frame

8. The process of changing to power driven machinery

10. someone who starts a new bussiness.

11. concerned about the population growth and concluded that population growth is faster that crop growth. He concluded that misery and poverty would never go away.

12. Invented the seed drill

13. product moves from worker to worker, as each of them performs a specific step in the manufacturing process.

14. Inventor who made crucial innovations and made his own steam engine that was faster and more efficient at driving machinery than any other one made

17. work stoppages

18. The system in which the government owns almost all the means of production and controls economic planning

22. A building that A building that houses industrial machines