

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 3 & 4

Across

3. Muscle does not receive enough oxygen, causes the muscle to go into spasm
6. The affected muscle will contract violently and uncontrollably
8. Characterized by fatigue, weakness, and collapse
9. Prolonged running on hard surfaces that causes inflammation & tearing of the muscles & soft tissues of the lower leg
10. Heat that results in high body temperature

11. Is on the inside of your wrist

Down

1. Uses height and weight values to calculate a score for body composition
2. The study of human motion & the effect forces have on the body
4. Located in the neck, under the jawbone, side of nect
5. A drop in body temperature to below 95 degrees
7. The regular throbbing in the arteries caused by the contraction of the heart