

Name: _____

Date: _____

Science Vocabulary

Across

2. A structure or feature of an organism that helps it meet a particular need in its natural habitat.
3. A microscopic single-celled organism that does not have a distinct nucleus with a membrane of organelles, consists of bacteria.
8. The first part of an organism's specific name; a group of organisms that share major characteristics and are therefore closely related.
9. A large group specifically having simple cells with rigid walls and very often a flagella for movement.
11. The second part of an organism's scientific name that identifies one specific organism in the genus.

12. The name of kingdom that is made up of plants.

13. The kingdom that includes bacteria.

15. Cells that contain membrane bound organelles and chromosomes inside the DNA of the nucleus, includes animals, plants, fungi, protists, and types of bacteria.

Down

1. A guide used to identify an organism based on its characteristics.
4. A classification system useful for storing and finding information about living things.
5. The arrangement of things in groups of similar items.

6. Microorganisms that are similar to bacteria in size and simple structure but different in molecular organization.

7. The kingdom of classification in which members often have traits of both plants and animals.

10. The name of kingdom that is made up of animals.

14. The name of the kingdom of plant like organisms that do not make their own food but take the nutrients that they need from the environment.