

Name: _____

Literary Terms and Devices Vocabulary 2

Across

3. A feeling of uncertainty or dread about what will happen next in a literary piece

5. The use of extreme exaggeration, usually with humor

7. An expression that is personal, jeering, and intend to hurt and relates to verbal irony

11. A reference to a well-know work of literature, art, music

13. Occurs when the exact opposite of what is meant to happen, happens

14. A saying or figure of speech that can't be literary translated

15. A figure of speech that compares two things that are not alike but have something in common without using "like" or "as"

17. The use of vivid to create a picture in the reader's mind

18. A word or phrase that imitates a sound or action

19. A repetition of similar sounding words occurring at the end of lines in poems or songs

Down

1. The extra sense that the word implies

2. The close placement having opposite or near opposite meanings in order to create a unique description

4. Creating a "special effect" by repeating a sound or word

6. The dictionary definition of the word; the literary meaning

8. The repetition of a letter or sound at the beginning of an adjacent or closely connected words syllables

9. A humorous way of using a word or phrase so that more than one meaning is suggested

10. A figure of speech that compares two unlike things using "like" or "as"

12. The use of one thing to stand for another or represent another

16. A comparison that shows a relationship between two things

Word Bank

Oxymoron

Rhyme

Symbolism

Sarcasm

Idiom

Onomatopoeia

Pun

Analogy

Hyperbole

Simile

Denotation

alliteration

Imagery

Situational Irony

Suspense

connotation

Metaphor

Repetition

allusion