

Chapter 8: Safety Puzzle

Across

- 1. Methods or activities that are most effective when communities, teachers, parents, and students all seek to reduce the risk of injury.
- 5. This injury is the leading cause of death and greatest public health problem for today's children.
- 7. A bump, blow, or jolt to the head or a penetrating head injury that disrupts the function of the brain.
- 9. The use of electronic communication to bully a person.
- 10. A chance, an accident, a chance of being injured or harmed, danger, a possible source of danger to life, to health, property, or environment.

- 12. Rates of injuries are greater for this group of the population.

- 13. The state where children live in neighborhoods with high crime rates, have a greater risk of almost every type of injury, and live in dilapidated housing.

- 14. Substance that is harmful to the body when ingested, inhaled, or absorbed through the skin.

Down

- 2. The action of restoring a person to good health through training and therapy.

- 3. The condition of being safe from undergoing or causing hurt, injury, or loss.

- 4. This type of injury is related to drowning, falls, fires or burns, poisoning, and sports.

- 6. Set of practices intended to reduce the destruction caused by fire.

- 8. The name for a type of child that spends so much time alone without parents or caregivers that a "key" is strung around their neck.

- 11. One of the most effective safety devices for cyclists to reduce head injury and death.