Name: _____ Date: _____

DT Crossword

Across

4. Something that links data bases together

9. can be used to craft stuff

13. Something that's attached to a console that projects the image

14. Programming

16. something that you use to craft stuff

17. A source that powers all electronics

Down

1. An electronic device you use to play games and find information

2. something used to measure materials with

3. Something that can contains saved data

5. Something with letter on

6. to find out about stuff

7. Something that people can lose and make a lot of money on

8. something that people should not rely on to get them money

10. Something that sends information to a computer that's above twelve miles high

11. The box that contains a hardrive

12. You use it to control your cursa

15. Storage on an electronic device