

Facial Displays & Eye Behaviors

Across

3. Nonverbal communication can be _____ when it is applied as part of several strategies.

5. One behavior that contributes to a sense of affiliation

7. What is one of the three important functions of facial displays?

9. One of the most effective strategies used for influencing other peoples behavior?

10. A nonverbal channel that helps us form demographic impressions of others

12. The most informative nonverbal channel for forming sociocultural impressions

14. What form of communication engages nearly all of our senses?

Down

1. We are More often _____ by people we like rather than by people we don't.

2. What symbolize particular forms of experience and authority?

4. A person's demographic _____ include his/her age, ethnic background, and sex.

6. What is the primary mean to communicate emotion?

8. Most common facial expression of deception?

11. A change in the pitch of someones voice may indicate?

13. What is considered as a seperate nonverbal channel?

Word Bank

characteristics

Credibility

personal appearance

Smiling

persuasive

voice

Deception

attractiveness

Facial Behavior

Nonverbal

Touch

Persuaded

eye behavior

Uniforms