

Period:

Phosphorus Cycle Crossword

Across

6. A heritable trait that increases the likelihood of an individuals survival and reproduction

9. Change over time

10. A human controlled process to produce individuals with certain traits

11. The degree to which an animal can reproduce successfully in its environment

12. A sequence of Dna that codes for a particular trait

Down

1. the place where an animal lives

2. living parts of an ecosystem

3. process by which traits that improve an organisms chances to survive and reproduction are passed on more frequently to offspring than those that do not

4. nonliving parts of an ecosystem

5. ability to survive and reproduce under changing environmental conditions

7. the process by which two species evolve in response to changes in each other

8. the disappearance of a species from earth