

Infection Prevention and Control Fun!

Across

- 4. The name of the virus that causes respiratory infections typically between the months of October and April. Have you taken the vaccine against it this year?
- 6. What is a common bacteria that is antibiotic resistant?
- 8. The separation of infected persons from others.
- 9. _____ is your body's first line of defense against infection.
- 10. Wash your hands immediately after removing _____.
- 13. The overuse and misuse of antibiotics causes antibiotic _____.

Down

- 1. These should be trimmed and clean at all times.
- 2. The number one intervention to break the chain of infection.
- 3. This level of precautions relates to all aspects of patient care.
- 5. Who is responsible for cleanliness within the workplace?
- 7. Who has the best infection prevention and control program?
- 11. Most health-care associated infections are transmitted to patients by _____.
- 12. Never _____ needles after use.