

Legal Terms

Across

- 2. Type of sentence when serving one sentence after another
- 4. A person who knows something about what you did or did not do
- 7. Type of trial where a jury decides innocence or guilt
- 10. Type of trial where judge decides innocence or guilt and imposes sentence
- 11. Length of time spent in jail or prison
- 13. A lawyer who is paid to defend you
- 14. This is what the witness does when they talk to the court under oath
- 15. Person charged with a crime

Down

- 1. Lying under oath
- 3. Crime classification of not more than 90 days and/or fines of $1,000
- 5. This can consist of writing, objects, or testimony of a witness that are presented during the trial
- 6. Who makes the final decision that you are competent?
- 8. Type of plea that does not indicate innocence or guilt. Also gives up the right to a trial and allows judge to sentence
- 9. When one is found 'not guilty' at a trial they are...
- 12. Type of sentence when serving multiple sentences at the same time