

Name: _____

Date: _____

sex ed crossword

Across

2. tube used to transport sperm and semen to the urethra and penis

3. joins the uterus to the outside of the body. this is where the sperm are released during sexual intercourse

8. the final section of the large intestine, terminating at the anus

9. a female reproductive organ in which ova or eggs are produced, present in humans and other vertebrates as a pair

11. loose pouch below the penis that holds the testis

14. a gland surrounding the neck of the bladder in male mammals and releasing a fluid component of semen

15. a highly convoluted duct behind the testis, along which sperm passes to the vas deferens

Down

1. each of a pair of glands which open into the vas deferens near to its junction with the urethra and secrete many of the components of semen

4. male reproductive cell that fertilises female egg

5. responsible for the production of sperm and testosterone. located in the scrotum

6. a small sensitive organ located just above the vaginal opening

7. the female sex cell or egg, fertilised by sperm and conception

10. carries sperm and urine to the outside of the body

12. folds of skin that protect the opening to the vagina

13. the organ used to release sperm