

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Vocab and Spelling Homework

Across

- 1. to wither; make or become helpless or useless.
3. able to resist wear, decay, etc., well, lasting, and enduring
8. to be successful or fortunate, especially in financial respects, thrive, & flourish.
10. the act of innovating; introduction of new things or methods.
11. electromotive force or potential difference expressed in volts.

- 12. two different forces that are acting off of each other

- 13. to injure severely, disfigure, or mutilate by cutting, slashing, or crushing

- 14. to create and distribute vitally
15. having an urgent need, desire, etc.

Down

- 2. having or serving a utilitarian purpose, capable of serving the purpose for which it was designed

- 4. to make a magnet of or impart the properties of a magnet to.

- 5. skeptical attitude or temper, doubt

- 6. to cause faster or greater activity, development, progress, advancement, etc.

- 7. a great number of something

- 9. to admit or accept with formal rites into an organization or group, secret knowledge, adult society, etc.

Word Bank

Accelerate

Functional

Innovation

Mangled

Skepticism

Multitude

Magnetized

Voltage

Desperate

Polarity

Shrivel

Initiate

Generate

Durable

Prosper