

Date: _____

[illegible]

2. Name of the setting used to slow down or speed up the shutter.

8. You place this into the camera to save your images.

10. You are always asked to operate your camera in mode.

12. This is used to increase or decrease the amount of light exposure in your image.

1. Name of the grid used to help place a subject off center

3. Composition

technique used to direct the viewers gaze towards a subject along a single pathway.

5. You turn this to gain focus in your image.

6. The D in DSLR stands for

7. Window screen in the camera that you look through to see the image you are capturing.