

Name: _____

Date: _____

Characteristics of Life

Across

6. Living things do this to look for food, keep themselves safe and escape from their enemies
7. Animals do it till a certain age while plants keep on doing it till they die
8. All living things remove waste from their bodies through a special process
10. Animals need lungs for this and plants do it through the stomata

Down

1. Both plants and Animals react towards their environment
2. They need to do this to produce their next generation
3. Living things will not survive without this gas
4. Living things get energy from this
5. How many basic characteristics are common in all living things?
9. This is released when food is broken down in presence of Oxygen