

Name: _____

Key word Cross word of awesomeness

Across

- 2. The original Functionalist
- 3. The idea that organs (or Social institutions) have functions that relate to each other
- 6. The "parts" we play in society
- 10. A Functionalist that talks about 4 functions of the family
- 12. Children who are wild or unsocialised
- 14. Differences in norms and values of people from different cultures

- 16. The way of life of a group of people

- 18. Unwritten rules that people follow
- 19. How individuals see and define themselves

Down

- 1. Socially constructed aspects of difference between men and women
- 4. What we call a theory that sees society as positive and 'working'
- 5. Comparing society to the human body

- 7. The process of learning norms and values

- 8. What Parsons says a relaxing family is like
- 9. What someone (or society) sees as important and what they try to achieve
- 11. According to Parsons Dads fulfil this role
- 13. Biological differences between male and female
- 15. The person that carries out the 'expressive role'
- 17. The position a person has in society and the amount of respect that position has