Name:	Date:
-------	-------

Aggression in Sport

Across

- 7. What is the term used when aggression is taken out on somebody or something other than the aggressor?
- 8. Which theory states that we have a natural build-up of aggression until it enevitably must be released?
- 9. What type of aggression is non-physical?
- 10. Which theory states that frustration is the cause of aggression
- 11. What is the name give to the high-jump technique which was used in one of our examples last week?

Down

- 1. What theory states that we learn aggression by observing others?
- 2. Which type of aggression is goal-directed?
- 3. What is the term used when sport is used as a release for aggression
- 4. Which one of Gill's criteria is missing? Behaviour which must cause harm or injury and is directed towards a living being
- 5. Which type of aggression has the main aim of inflicting harm
- 6. What type of behaviour is playing with high intensity within the rules of the game, where injury may occur as a consequence