

Hamlet Vocabulary

Across

3. (Synonym for) swamp
 4. (Synonym for) head
 5. (Synonym for) traditional
 7. 1. Although his remorse was genuine, his regret did little to _____ the results of the accident; he still had to take responsibility for driving drunk.
 12. 4. Father Butters hoped his sermon would _____ a renewed sense of unity among the students at Mass.
 13. 13. The evening was full of _____; we were all amused and happy to spend time together and laugh about old times.
 17. 19. To _____ her advice about college applications, the counselor also gave each student a booklet about how to choose the right college.
 18. 7. His flattery was so _____ I could barely listen to it; it was clearly designed to get a better grade than he deserved.
 21. 20. Tom thought he could _____ his friends with tall tales about his fishing success.
 22. (Synonym for) challengers
 24. 6. His _____ in completing his assignments resulted in top grades; his dedication and hard work were admirable.
 26. (Synonym for) reasonable

27. 16. The success of the writing program resulted in _____ by other educational websites.
 29. 18. Their civilized _____ quickly deteriorated into an argument.
 30. 9. Mom was really disappointed when the Jell-O dessert did not _____ quickly enough to serve it to her guests.
 31. 11. The violent segment of the political party was the smallest _____ represented at the convention. Only four people were there.
 32. 15. The newly married couple made a very cute _____.
Down
 1. (Synonym for) breathe
 2. (Synonym for) humor
 6. (Synonym for) brag
 8. (Synonym for) descendants
 9. 10. The arrogant student demonstrated considerable _____ about her intelligence, and everyone agreed that her lack of humility was very unattractive.
 10. 8. The busy mother's single _____ over the course of the day was to take a hot bath and relax for a few minutes.
 11. (Synonym for) tendons
 14. (Synonym for) awaken

15. 14. The jeweler did not care to _____ the diamond's value, as it was so tiny it was barely worth his time and attention.
 16. 3. Her _____ was the picture of despair when hearing the tragic news.
 19. 17. The stench emanating from the _____ in the city dump made the neighborhood unpopular.
 20. 12. The chaotic pace of the holidays was too _____ for John. He preferred quite time alone rather than attending lots of parties.
 23. 1. Although his remorse was genuine, his regret did little to _____ the results of the accident; he still had to take responsibility for driving drunk.
 25. 5. Her reasons for not turning in the essay were _____; they ranged from not having enough time to not having a copy of the assignment to having a computer problem.
 28. (Synonym for) supporter

Word Bank

quagmire	conceit	diligence	rivals	hectic	emulation	assay
tenable	kindle	suspension	countenance	pate	obsequious	congeal
moiety	confute	mitigate	offal	vaunt	mirth	sinews
wit	posterity	rouse	manifold	doublet	beguile	discourse
augment	partisan	indulgence	retrograde			