

India ch 5 sec 1 and 2

Across

4. Ruins of these two Harappan cities have provided information about their civilization.

5. The ideas of the Aryan religion blended with ideas from Persia and Central Asia to form this largest religion in India today.

7. This Aryan language is the root of many South Asian languages

11. The belief that one's actions, whether good or bad, will have an effect on one's soul.

12. After the Harappans, this new group came from the area around the Caspian Sea.

14. Process of the soul being reborn many times.

15. This determines an Indian's place in society based on birth, wealth, or occupation.

16. Monotheistic religion that believes in treating all people equally.

Down

1. India's most fertile land is between these two rivers.

2. The four main social divisions in Aryan society.

3. Many Harappan settlements were found along this river.

6. Religion of the Aryans

8. A collection of writings containing religious rituals and thoughts written by Brahmin priests, religious students, and teachers.

9. The highest mountains in the world, along India's northern border.

10. Religion that taught to own no property.

13. Most Harappan houses had indoor_____.

17. Seasonal patterns of heavy rain and floods.