

Name: _____

Date: _____

Heart Failure

Across

6. released from ventricle in response to increased volume in heart

8. early signs of toxicity for this medication includes: anorexia, nausea and vomiting, fatigue, headache, depression, visual changes

9. shortness of breath when lying flat

10. displaced PMI, crackles, S3/S4 sounds indicates _____ sided HF

11. avoid food high in _____ when taking spironalactone

13. diet to limit salt intake

15. dysrhythmias may lead to _____ formation

Down

1. should be assessed before and continuously during administration

2. should be taken every day with the same scale and clothing

3. _____ nervous system triggered in low-CO state

4. allergic reaction involving edema of the face and airways when taking captopril

5. a clinical syndrome that involves inadequate pumping/filling of the heart

7. medication class that helps with fluid overload

12. this electrolyte should be limited to approximately 2000 mg/day

14. JVD, edema, weight gain, ascites, hepatomegaly indicates _____ sided HF