

The Canterbury Tales Prologue

Across

3. Clergy member who feigned the mannerisms and dress of a lady.
6. Youthful and 'lusty bachelor' who could sing, dance, joust, and write.
7. Pious clergy member who, rather than requesting tithes, often gave money and goods to the poor in need.
10. Fat clergy member who loved hunting and disregarded the rules of Saint Benedict.
11. Noble pilgrim on pilgrimage to show thanks for safe return from another battle.
12. This 'hardy and big of brawn and big of bone' pilgrim had a wart with a tuft of red hairs of his nose.

14. Pilgrim who purchased food and drink for a group of lawyers.

16. The narrator cannot recall this man's name despite his success in trade.

17. How many times has the Wife of Bath been married?

Down

1. Medical professional who would prescribe drugs his patients did not need so that his pharmacist friends could make money.

2. An Oxford academic who spent his money on 'books and learning.'

4. Yellow-haired pilgrim who sold indulgences and fake relics.

5. Wealthy landowner who provided the best food and drink at his home, whatever the season.

8. Captain of the Madeleine, who knew the seas but also stole wine.

9. This group includes the haberdasher, the carpenter, the weaver, the dyer, and the carpet maker.

13. This overseer of a feudal estate who was feared by his subordinates and even lent money and goods to the lord.

15. Had an ulcer on his leg that oozed the color of his blanc-mange sauce.