

COLLEGE KNOWLEDGE

Across

1. A school's teaching and administrative staff who is responsible for designing programs of study.
2. A student in the fourth year of college / university.
4. The head of a division of a college or university.
11. A required course that must be completed before a student is allowed to enroll in a more advanced one.
12. A student in the second year of high school or college / university.
13. An academic subject area that a student chooses to have a secondary focus on during their undergraduate studies.
14. A number representing the average value of the accumulated final grades earned in courses over time.

16. An undergraduate academic degree awarded by colleges and universities upon completion of a course of study lasting around 4 years (120 Credits).

18. An amount of money charged by colleges and universities, in addition to their tuition, to cover costs of services such as libraries and computer technology.
21. Periods of instruction into which an academic year is often divided.
22. An individual subject or class taken at the college.

Down

3. The academic subject area that a student chooses to focus on during his or her undergraduate studies.
5. A student in the third year of college / university.
6. The grounds and buildings where a college or university is located.

7. A degree granted after a two-year course of study (60 Credits), especially by a community college.

8. A student in the first year of college.
9. Units that a school uses to indicate that a student has completed and passed courses that are required for a degree.
10. A division of a school, made up of faculty and support staff, that gives instruction in a particular field of study.
15. A score or mark indicating a student's academic performance on an exam, paper or in a course.
17. Not required to do something that other students may be required to do.
19. To register or enter a school or course as a participant.
20. To withdraw from a course.